Known for its warm climate, incredible bird watching, excellent surfing and snorkeling, and beautiful beaches, Guanacaste is a testament to why this country translates to "The Rich Coast."

THE WILD WEST

GUANACASTE

Located in the northwest on the Pacific Ocean, Guanacaste features a drier climate in total contrast to the rest of Costa Rica, its mixture of forests, beaches, extensive plains and an impressive volcanic range indented with bays and peninsulas. Plus, a significant number of protected areas, including coastal, mountainous, terrestrial and aquatic ecosystems give rise to stunning wildlife--best viewed between November and April, when little if any rain falls--and gorgeous plant life, especially when everything turns a radiant green.

Depending on the nature of your tour, be sure to bring along some or all of the following: comfortable walking shoes/hiking boots, a hat, sunscreen, swimsuit and towel, bug spray, rain gear, and of course, your camera and binoculars!

HANGING BRIDGES IN THE RAINFOREST

GUANACASTE

ARENAL AREA

Located in the Northern Plains, the Arenal area is home to the Arenal Volcano, considered to be one of the world's most active volcanoes since 1969. With its curative hot mineral springs and manicured gardens, is the main attraction of the area, rising 1,633 meters above sea level. Other great attractions in this area include the Hanging Bridges in the Rainforest and the Tabacón Hot Springs.

The area is also home to the Caño Negro Wildlife Refuge, a wetland area rich in biological diversity. The Cordilleras (ranges) of Tilarán and Guanacaste offset the beauty of the plains. Of the 850 bird species identified in Costa Rica, 600 are permanent residents of this region.

MONTEVERDE AREA

The Monteverde area in Costa Rica is world-famous for its cloud forest. There are two reserves, the original Monteverde Cloud Forest Reserve and the Santa Elena Rainforest. The cloud forest reserve is home to many rare species of plants and animals. Tourist activities include bird-watching (observe over 450 bird species), wildlife and nature-watching, hiking, canopy tours, trips to suspension bridges and visits to frog gardens and the Monteverde Butterfly Garden.

Other excursions in the area include visits to El Trapiche, a small old-fashioned sugar processing operation, the Santa Elena Rainforest Reserve, the Reserva Sendero Tranquilo, the Monteverde Conservation League's Bajo del Tigre Trail.

Important note: The 3 and 4-night escorted tours are designed to be combined with additional nights at a selected beach hotel in Guanacaste. Customers not wishing to add additional nights must purchase separate transfers back to the airport.

See page 9 for a map of routes for these tours from Guanacaste.

SAN JOSÉ

THE CENTRAL VALLEY

The main entryway to the country, the Central Valley offers a variety of tourist, natural and cultural attractions, including the capital city of San José, featuring Costa Rica's best museums and the architectural jewel of Costa Rica, the National Theater.

The national parks located in the Valley–Poás, Braulio Carrillo, Irazú and Turrialba–protect the region's main volcanoes. All have road infrastructure so that visitors can enjoy the birds, natural landscapes, craters and forests.

As a tourism zone, the Central Valley features two extraordinarily beautiful areas that in and of themselves are true tourist destinations: Turrialba and Valle de los Santos. The rural towns, for their part, are highly picturesque, and offer a glimpse of old Costa Rica, with their houses of bahareque, large coffee plantations, sugar mills and dairies.

HEALTH AND SAFETY TIPS FOR TRAVELERS

As you are about to embark on a foreign vacation, there are certain things of which you need to be aware. Apple Vacations strongly recommends that you visit the portion of United States Department of States' website http://travel.state.gov/index.html, which deals with foreign travel. Specifically, you should read tips on foreign travel and travel warnings for the country or countries you plan to visit. Although foreign travel is exciting and rewarding, you must keep in mind that you are not traveling in the United States and extra caution is required to make your trip happy and successful. Just a few of the issues you need to be aware of are: medical standards and training of emergency responders and resort medical facilities vary greatly. If you have medical issues or concerns about medical services, Apple Vacations urges you to contact the particular property, as health care abroad may not be the same as you might expect at home. Sports and aquatic equipment, especially scuba gear, may not meet U.S. safety standards and many resort pools and beaches may lack lifeguards. Balcony railing heights are lower than the mandated heights in the United States. Low balcony railings create a risk of falls, which may result in serious injury or death.

RESERVATIONS/PAYMENT/LATE BOOKINGS

For availability and confirmation of your chosen vacation package, see your travel agent, visit us at applevacations.com or call 1-800-517-2000. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) regulations require you to provide your full name, date of birth, and gender at the time of booking for the purpose of watch-list screening. Failure to provide this information will result in you not being allowed to travel. For details, visit www.tsa.gov. Once your reservation is confirmed with Apple, the amendment and cancellation charges as explained in the Fair Trade Contract will apply. Full payment is required at time of booking for bookings made directly on our website, applevacations.com and credit cards are the only acceptable form of payment.

Note: If your reservation includes children at a hotel not accepting children, you will be denied check-in at resort. You will be responsible for any additional costs. We advise you to book early for best choice and value. Late bookings will incur a late booking fee of $10 per person on all reservations made 14 days or less before departure to cover additional costs for faxing, updating and confirming your accommodations.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

Apple Vacations will provide the services and facilities of your vacation package as described in our catalog and confirmed on your invoice. If you would prefer special arrangements other than those described, such as adjoining rooms, specific assistance needed or special meals, we will be glad to pass on your special request to the appropriate vendor on your behalf. However, since these requests lie outside our contracts with our suppliers, Apple Vacations cannot guarantee special requests unless otherwise stated.

ITEMS NOT INCLUDED

Departure taxes-All passengers departing Costa Rica, including infants, are required to pay a government departure tax at the airport ($29 USD per person and subject to change). This tax can be paid in U.S. dollars, Colones, or with Visa or MasterCard. Passport and visa fees, port and embarkation fees, laundry, telephone calls, other items and services of a personal nature, and tips to airport baggage handlers are not included in the price of your vacation. Unless specified, wines, liquors, meals, sightseeing and excursions are also not included in the price of your vacation. Airlines may also charge additional fees such as seat assignment or meal fees. Check with the airline for specific charges.

TRAVELING WITH CHILDREN

Infants under two years of age may fly and stay free, but must sit on an adult's lap and do not receive a separate baggage allowance. If an infant reaches the age of two any time during the vacation, federal law requires the purchase of a separate seat for any remaining portions of the flight. Some scheduled airlines may charge for infants, including air-related taxes, and some countries charge infant departure taxes. Any such charges by independent suppliers or governments are the responsibility of the client. Restrictions may apply to "Kids Stay, Play and Eat FREE" programs and most hotels require that children must be accompanied by full-paying adults and pay airfare. Policies vary by individual hotels. Hotels may check the passports of children at check-in to verify they qualify for any discounted child room rate. At select hotels, a single parent traveling with up to two or three children (varies by hotel) is not charged the single supplement. The hotels reserve the right to collect the single supplement in resort, or cancel any extra room upon arrival, if the promotional policy is not used in the manner for which it was intended. Restrictions apply.

BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE

Many airlines are charging fees for checked and/or carry-on bags and have different baggage allowances and fees. Please check with your airline for specifics. Carry-on luggage is limited to one bag per person and must be small enough to fit beneath the seat in front of you; some airlines have a carry-on bag fee. PLEASE BE ADVISED THAT EXCESS/OVERSIZED BAGGAGE MAY BE DENIED AT CHECK-IN and if accepted, there will be additional charges. Anyone attempting to check-in excess baggage should arrive at the ticket counter a minimum of 2 hours prior to departure (except where a carrier specifies a longer minimum), or risk being denied boarding. Lap children under age two do not receive a separate baggage allowance. Apple Vacations accepts no liability for loss or damage to luggage. We recommend that passengers consider the use of a TSA approved lock to secure their luggage. For details on baggage insurance, see your travel agent.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

Requirements as outlined below may change, so see your travel agent or contact the consulate for the country to which you are traveling to be accurately advised of current requirements. Proper documentation is your responsibility. The following information gives current requirements for United States citizens, effective at time of printing: Passengers of all ages returning to the U.S. by air from any international destination must have a valid passport in good condition, and passengers may be denied boarding by the airline if passport is damaged, mutilated, or has excessive wear. A state-issued birth certificate with government issued photo I.D., or a passport "card", is not acceptable. If your name on your passport (or for non-U.S. citizens, valid travel documents) does not match your name on your travel vouchers/tickets, you will not be allowed to travel.

For details on how to obtain a passport, contact your local courthouse or post office. For information on obtaining expedited passports visit www.abriggs.com/applevac. If you are not a U.S. citizen, contact the embassy of the country to which you are traveling to determine required entry documents. We regret that we cannot accept unaccompanied minors under 18 for any travel. Failure to comply with the above requirements will result in you not being allowed to travel.

DENIAL OF ENTRY

Certain countries may deny entry to travelers with even a minor criminal record, and if not a U.S. citizen, entry back into the United States. Check with the U.S. Embassy and the embassy or consulate of the country being visited to ensure you can travel as planned.

INSECTICIDE NOTICE

Some countries require insecticide spraying of aircraft prior to a flight or while you are on the aircraft. Federal law requires that we refer you to http://airconsumer.dot.gov/spray.htm for more information.

INDEPENDENT SUPPLIERS

Apple Vacations contracts with airlines, hotels and other independent suppliers to provide you with the services you purchase. We do not accept and expressly disclaim responsibility for the acts or omissions of these independent suppliers.

ARRIVAL IN COSTA RICA

Upon arrival in Costa Rica, you will clear Immigration, claim your luggage and clear Customs. An Apple Vacations Representative holding an Apple Vacations sign will meet you outside the airport's arrivals area and direct you to your transfer. Apple Representatives are not allowed inside the arrivals area. Apple Vacations is represented in Costa Rica by Swiss Travel Costa Rica, an independent destination management company operating in Costa Rica and providing services to Apple Vacationers. You may contact your Apple Representative at the following numbers:

Destination	Representative	Local phone #
Guanacaste	Swiss Travel Costa Rica	506 2667 0606 ext 5046
San José	Swiss Travel Costa Rica	506 2282 4898 ext 1184

Transfers are not included for passengers flying into Liberia and staying in San José or Puntarenas.

CUSTOMS

U.S. Customs currently imposes an $800 limit per person on the value of goods you can bring into the country duty-free from most countries. This amount does vary depending on the particular country to which you travel. Also, you are restricted from bringing certain types of goods (e.g. fresh fruits, vegetables) back to the U.S. Ask your travel agent for the latest details and save receipts for purchases made on vacation.

NIGHTS IN YOUR HOTEL

The "Nights in Hotel" listed on your confirmation/travel voucher indicates the number of nights that your room has been reserved for you. If your return flight departs late evening, it is normal for your hotel to require that you check out of your room at midday. In these cases, a room MAY be made available for storing hand baggage and for changing prior to departure. However, this is at the discretion of the hotel.

CREDIT CARDS AND TRAVELERS CHECKS

Visa, MasterCard and U.S. Dollars are widely accepted. Larger bills can be difficult to change and you will generally receive your change in colones (the local currency). Most local banks and hotels provide a currency exchange.

VALUABLES AND PERSONAL ITEMS

VALUABLES AND OTHER PERSONAL ITEMS ARE YOUR RESPONSIBILITY. Most hotels offer safety deposit box facilities (fee may apply). You may want to deposit cash, traveler's checks, passports, jewelry and other valuables for security. Do not pack cash, medication, jewelry, cameras, film, important documents or fragile items in your checked luggage.

DINING DRESS CODE

Although casual dress is the standard by day, many resorts have dress code requirements for dinner. Before you pack, be sure to check with your travel agent or visit our website for detailed dress code information for your hotel.

GETTING MARRIED AND HONEYMOONING IN RESORT

If you plan to get married in destination, be sure to check with the local tourist office and consulate of the country in which you are getting married for legal documents that may be required. Honeymoon Value Plus offers require you to supply a valid marriage certificate.

HANDICAPPED SERVICES AND FACILITIES

Should you desire any special service or equipment to assist with a disability, please let us know in advance so we can advise the air carrier (services available vary by carrier). Although we will do our best to assist you, Apple Vacations does not guarantee the availability of wheelchairs at any airport. Wheelchair accessible rooms may be requested but cannot be guaranteed. Standards may vary from property to property and country to country and may not be consistent with the standards required by the Americans With Disabilities Act and are not within the control of Apple Vacations.

CATALOG/WEBSITE ACCURACY

We check and re-check prices and facts about the vacations we offer to ensure accuracy at the time of printing. Sometimes, however, you may find that prices have been changed or features we describe may become unavailable. Whenever possible, we will inform you or your travel agent about such changes. However, all prices and descriptions herein, as well as in Apple Vacations print advertisements and our website, are subject to change without notice. Some hotel room photographs in this catalog and our website do not depict the standard room category. Maps are not to scale. Apple Vacations is not responsible for omissions or errors.

CUSTOMER COMMENTS

Should you have a complaint while on vacation you must provide Apple Vacations with a reasonable opportunity to rectify the issue during your vacation by promptly notifying our representative in resort who will make every effort to help you. If the matter cannot be settled on the spot, you must write to our Customer Care Department within 28 days of the completion of your vacation at customercare@applevacations.com. The few complaints we receive are normally resolved by amicable settlement. However, please understand that we cannot consider post-vacation submissions if you did not provide Apple Vacations with a reasonable opportunity to assist you during your trip. We reserve the right to give any compensation in the form of vacation certificates, cash or credit card credit.

LOST ITEMS

If upon your return you find that you have left something in resort, Apple Vacations will make an inquiry on your behalf. If the item is located, you will be responsible for any international shipping charges to have the item returned. Email: lostitems@applevacations.com for assistance.

The AV-OK Total Vacation Security Plan must be purchased within 7 days of your initial booking (except for group passengers who are subject to unique contracts*). For bookings created within 14 days of departure, AV-OK must be purchased at time of booking.

The AV-OK Total Vacation Security Plan includes Pre-Departure Cancellation/Change Waiver & Best Price Guarantee, and Post-Departure Travel Insurance.

PART A – APPLE VACATIONS' PRE-DEPARTURE CANCELLATION/CHANGE WAIVER & BEST PRICE GUARANTEE

APPLE VACATIONS' PRE-DEPARTURE CANCELLATION/CHANGE WAIVER — This waiver pertains to all vacation types: land only, charter, and scheduled air vacations including non-refundable scheduled airfares and airline penalties. This non-refundable plan allows you to cancel or change your vacation up until the flight check-in is closed (approximately one hour prior to scheduled departure time), except for passengers who do not arrive at the airport or gate, or who arrive too late to travel, or who fail to have the required valid passport and/or travel documents. For last minute cancels, call 1-866-860-AVOK no later than one hour prior to your scheduled departure.

Travel Certificate Programs: When a cancellation is made during a penalty period, your cancellation penalty will be refunded in Apple Vacations' travel certificates (redeemable through the original booking agency), with the balance of the refund made in the original form of payment less the non-refundable AV-OK plan payment. Apple Vacations travel certificates may be used like cash when purchasing an Apple Vacation, are valid for one year, are non-refundable and non-transferable (issued only in the name of the passenger who cancelled) and may not be redeemed for cash.

"Cash Back" Programs: The entire refund (less the non-refundable AV-OK plan payment) will be in original form of payment if you purchased the "cash back" option at the time of booking for an additional $30 per person.

Changes: AV-OK coverage is non-transferable and must be repurchased (reactivated) if coverage is desired for the amended booking. A reactivation fee of $25 for charter/land only bookings and $45 for scheduled air bookings applies for all departure date, duration, hotel, departure city, destination and (scheduled air) class of service changes. A $10 reactivation fee applies for children 12 and under (all booking types). Higher reactivation fees apply to holiday departures. Changes from charter to scheduled air or between scheduled air carriers, as well as name changes, require cancellation of the booking and full repurchase of the AV-OK if coverage is desired on the new booking. If the number of individuals occupying a room changes, the remaining travelers will be responsible for any additional costs incurred as a result of a change in the per person occupancy rate.

APPLE VACATIONS' BEST PRICE GUARANTEE — You can claim the savings prior to departure if Apple Vacations advertises a discount on the exact same vacation that you have booked and all components are still available-same date, duration of stay, hotel, room category and flight (same scheduled airfare class, or any charter airfare class). This does not apply to Air Only, Fly/Drive, Square Deals, special packages, booking date-restricted sales and hotels with a "closed" booking status. 6. TRAVEL ON AIR CARRIERS INCLUDING PUBLIC CHARTER FLIGHTS
Apple Vacations has made arrangements for air transportation to your vacation destination via regularly scheduled certificated air carriers or other air carriers who have duly filed with and are authorized to operate air transportation and public charter transportation by the U.S. Department of Transportation. Apple Vacations reserves the right to substitute alternate air carriers if necessary. All air travel is subject to the terms and conditions of the operating air carrier.

7. BAGGAGE
The baggage allowance and fees vary and are set by each air carrier. Information on carrier baggage policy and fees, liability for lost, misconnected and damaged baggage or other personal property is also set by each air carrier, which can be obtained through your travel agent, by contacting the air carrier directly, or by requesting them at the airport.
Some airlines do not cover damage to soft-sided luggage. The airlines' maximum liability for loss, damage or delay to checked baggage is limited to $3300 per ticketed passenger domestically and $9.07 per pound up to 44 lbs. per ticketed passenger for international travel. These limits will apply unless an excess valuation is declared at the time of check-in.
All lost or damaged luggage must be reported to an airline representative at the destination airport by the passenger before you leave the airport. SPECIAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO APPLE VACATIONS WITH SCHEDULED AIR TRANSPORTATION OR LAND ONLY PACKAGES

1. CHANGES BY AIRLINES
If a scheduled airline initiates a schedule change which results in a fare increase, the passenger is responsible for the price increase regardless of whether it occurs before or after the vacation price has been paid in full. All prices are subject to change if not paid in full due to fuel surcharge increases, government taxes and fees increases or unforeseen circumstances. You will be notified immediately upon discovery of an increase and will have the option of paying the difference or canceling with full refund. You may incur additional airline baggage and optional fees (food, excess baggage, etc.), charged by the airline at check in.

2. LOST AIRLINE TICKETS & REFUNDS
If you lose your scheduled airline ticket, you will have to purchase a new ticket at your own expense. In most cases the replacement ticket will be more expensive. You must contact your travel agent to begin refund procedures by completing a "Lost Ticket Application" (fees may apply). Any refunds made by the airline will be based on the value of the original ticket issued less any airline processing fees. Refunds (if applicable) will only be issued upon the return of the unused ticket.
